

GLENVIEW

North Shore Suburbs

Population	41,847
Avg. Home Value	$745,452
Village Hall	847-724-1700
www.glenview.il.us

Glenview, 20 miles north of the Loop, has often been singled out for its desirable schools, wealth of business, parks and lovely homes. The community has developed elaborate plans for the site of the former Glenview Naval Air Station (GNAS). Currently in development is a 300-acre parcel which will include 64 acres of mixed residential, 35 acres of business/retail use and a 72-acre commercial/light industrial office park.

The Glenview Park District operates parks, playgrounds, tennis courts, softball fields, basketball courts and “The Grove”, an 82-acre nature preserve. The district also offers a wide range of classes and programs.

Housing: Homes in Glenview feature a variety of styles and prices. Single-family homes range in price from $190,000 to $3.8 Million in 2006. The average home sale for 2006 was $745,452.

Schools: Glenview has had a high school a junior high and an elementary school recognized by the national Excellence in Education award. Elementary students attend school District 30, 31, 34, 37, 63 and 65. The majority of Glenview’s teenage students attends Glenbrook South High School in District 225, one of the most highly rated schools in greater Chicago. A small portion attend Maine East High School.

Transportation: Glenview is located between the Edens Expressway (I-94) and the Tri-State Tollway (I-294). Drive time to the Loop is 30 minutes. Rail commuters may board the train at the recently renovated Glenview station for a 35-minute trip to the Loop. O’Hare Airport is a 20-minute drive, and Midway Airport is 55 minutes away, respectively. Metra rail commuters reach the Loop in 35 minutes. Bus service is available.